

Third Annual Breakfast

Thursday, September 30, 2010, 7:00 – 9:00 am

Four Points by Sheraton

1150 Wellington Road South, London

The Honourable Michael Wilson Former Ambassador to the United States

Real Families. Real Problems. Real Help.

Vanier Children's Services (Vanier) is a leader in children's mental health helping vulnerable children and youth overcome serious emotional and behavioural problems. Programs include crisis intervention, residential services, day treatment, family counselling and community outreach. We work with children age 0-14 who are reacting to overwhelming stresses within their lives like violence, death, neglect, or parents with mental health or substance abuse problems.

Canada's Mental Health Crisis The Social & Economic Cost

All proceeds from the breakfast will go to support
H.O.P.E.

(Helping Other Parents Excel)

A unique program run by parents for parents whose children have emotional and behavioural problems.

LEAD SPONSOR

Individual tickets $50
To register and for further ticket information, please visit us at:

http://www.eventsonline.ca/events/hope\_breakfast/

Following his early career as an investment executive on Bay Street, Mr. Wilson was elected to the House of Commons in 1979 as a Progressive Conservative Member of Parliament. He served in various portfolios, including Minister of Finance and Minister of International Trade, in the governments of Joe Clark and Brian Mulroney. After returning to the Royal Bank of Canada in the 1990s, he became Chairman and CEO of UBS Canada. In 2003 The Honourable Michael Wilson was appointed an officer of the Order of Canada. From 2006-2009, he served as Canadian Ambassador to the United States. Since the death of his son from depression and suicide, Mr. Wilson has been an advocate for Children's Mental Health.